THE WEEK IN MUSIC

Recital by Mr. Oscar Franklin Comstock Promises to Be Musical Treat.

The second monthly recital of the Ru- the service. Miss Marguerite O'Toole, binstein Choral Club was held in the organist, and Mr. L. E. Gannon, director. ball room of the Arlington Hotel on Wednesday morning before a large audience of associate members and invited guests. The club, which has grown to pretentious proportions in the short space of eight months, has gained a remarkable held upon the musical public. The members are large audience of Adela Verne, the famous European pianist, in concert at the Columbia Theater Tuesday afternoon, January 19, is looked forward to as one of the most interesting events of the season. hold upon the musical public. The membership is seventy odd singers, fifteen

The chorus showed several new young In her encore, one of David Bispham's favorites, which she sang with much skill by Miss Lillian Koechling, violinist, who played with mature brilliance and remarkably good tone, and Miss Regina Elizabeth Winston, a youthful player, who has a career before her without question. Her splendld tone and remarkable technique were worthy a much older player. She made an emphatic triumph. The other solists were Miss Edua Dyer, who has a soprano voice of beautiful quality, color, and timbre; Mrs. George Demonet, who made her first appearance as a soloist, and showed a voice of re markable sweetness and evenness, and a particularly charming manner; and Miss Catherine Bates, another young singer with a fine voice of delightful quality, splendid range, and power. All the solo ists were encored, despite a request to

Miss Brickenstein, Mrs. Margaret Nolan Martin, and Mrs. Ramsdell, the accom-panist of the club, substituting for Mrs. Dickinson, were the other accompanists of the Morning. Mrs. Blair, conductor of the club, was overwhelmed with congratulations on the success of the pro-gramme and the work of the singers.

Mr. Oscar Franklin Comstock has issued cards for his January recital to-morrow evening, which promises to be a musical treat. The star of the evening is Miss Sybla Ramus, violinist, of New York. who has lately returned from some years' study in Germany with Arno Hilf, Sevcik, and others. Musicians who have heard Miss Ramus play pronounce her an artist of the first rank. stock will sing Schumann's rarely heard song cycle, "Dichterliebe," for which Miss Marguerite Williams will play the superb piano part. The rest of the programme is as follows:

Air for G string (Bach). Legende (Wieniawski).

"Album Leaf" (Wagner-Wilhelmi), introduction and
"Rondo Capriccioso" (Saint-Saens), Miss Ramus;
"Mine and Thine" (Bolun), "Persian Serenade" (Colyn), "Venetian Song" (Testi), "Bid Me to Live" (Hatton), Mr. Comstock; Sonata in D miner

The music at the afternoon service in the Church of the Covenant to-day at 4 o'clock will be as follows: Andantino in F. organ
"God Is Love," anthem.
"My God, My Father".....
Miss Bernheimer.

"Love Divine," duet.

Mrs. Gawler and Mr. Stevens.

"My Redeemer"

Mr. Humphrey.

"Like as a Hart"

Mrs. Gawler.

"Before the Gate's a Fountain"

Mr. Adam Geibel, the well-known com-

PART I. Introduction, organ. "God Will Rise."
Chorus of women, "God Will Rise."
Recitative and air, burytone, "Behold the Days."
Duet, tenor and alto, "The Scepter Shall Not Chorus, "As the Mountains."

Air, soprano, "From Heavenly Heights."
Chorus of men. "The Glory of the Lord."
Tenor solo, with chorus, "A Radiant Star."
Address, Charles L. Pate, D. D. Offertory, "O Holy Night," solo, duet, and chorus. PART II. PART II.
Chorus, "Through Starry Pathways."
Duct, soprano and tenor, "Call Him Jesus."
Barytone recitative, with chorus of men, "Let Us Go Unto Bethlehem."
Alto solo, with chorus, "Slumber Sweetly."
Quartet, "Bethlehem."
Full chorus and quartet, "Crown Him."

This Sunday will be observed by solemn high mass at the Shrine of the Sacred Heart Church, commencing at 11 a. m., at which the pastor, Rev. James F. Magee, will preach the sermon on the gospel for the day. The music will be of an unusual order of excellence. Emile Karst's devotional "Mass of the Sacred Heart," which contains so many beautiful melodles and which was sung at the Christmas midnight mass, will be repeated. In addition, Miss Mabel C. Lattimer will sing the offertorium, with violin obligate, Mr.

Miss Alice M. Eversmann, fresh fron her triumphal concert tour in Russia, will render Adam's "Noel," assisted by William M. Kemball, former tene St. Aloysius' choir, and sustained by the chorus of the choir, containing twenty-five members. Miss Marguerite Sweeney will sing Karst's "Veni Creator, with chorus by the choir. The solos of the mass will be sung by Miss Lattimer, soprano; Miss Sweeney, alto; Mr. Guida C. Callan, tenor, and L. E. Gannon. bass, Messrs. Ed J. McQuaid and Robert C. Howard will sustain other solos in

The forthcoming appearance of Adela

Miss Verne is further interesting as bership is seventy odd singers, litteen excellent instrumentalists as honorary the wisdom of restraining youthful Ten members, and a large associate member-ship of music lovers. The club is comship of music lovers. The club is com-posed of leading soloists in the church choirs and for that reason produces a ficult compositions easily, and at six had wonderful tone. The programme in-progressed so far that Mme. Clara Schu-mann marveled at her gifts and wished

The chorus showed several new young volces of much promise, and two splendid ones in Mrs. Curry and Mrs. Dalgleish, which are well known to the public and justly admired. Mrs. Curry has not been heard frequently in public the past few years. She has a voice of great beauty, rich, strong, full of color and dramatic possibilities. She has much temperature with style and feeling, to chamber music, its members are have arrived for their second American eral operas, one of which, "Loiita," was ment and sings with style and feeling. to chamber music. Its members are bound by agreement to give all their tar Club, under the direction of Mr. Wal-most capably accompanied by Miss Sally starts her American tour this season on M. C. A. They were assisted by Miss the Pacific Coast, having returned to this Popkins, soprano; Mr. Ray B. Gordon, country by the somewhat roundabout way of Australia. In Melbourne and Sydney, where she played several concerts, Miss Goodson was warmly praised.

> ban's last Sunday and will sing again plantation melodies, arranged by to-day in that church, by special request.

Tenos solos-(a) "Still wie die Nacht"... (a) "Mighty Lak" a Rose" Ne (b) "My Dreams" To Mrs. D. L. Richmond. Violin solo, overture and aria from "Cavalleria Rusticana" Mr. Mark Lansburgh.

(b) "You and Love".

Mrs. F. B. Gilmore. Miss Orley P. McCarthy. Mr. Herndon Morsell.

"Ob du mich liebst," from ...Paul Linke Mrs. Lulu Facius Davis was the accompanist.

At four the little girl always played Mr. Fred J. Eustis, the musical director When of the "Girls of Gottenberg" company, The members of the Flonzaley Quartet try. Mr. Eustis also has composed sev-ter T. Holt, gave a concert at Fort Myer and piquancy. She and Mrs. Curry were Katherine Goodson, the English planist, last week under the auspices of the Y. banjoist, and Miss Bessle Tiffany, mandolin soloist. The mandolin club played "Autumn," by Moret; "Enchantment Waltz," "Serenade," by Pierne, and "The Mr. Henderson Morsell sang at St. Al- ed "Woodland Memories," by Rapp, and nings. The soloists were all heartily encored. It was a well-arranged pro-The Christmas celebration for the ingramme, given with dash and spirit and mates and friends of the Ruppert Home finish.

SAYINGS OF MRS. SOLOMON.

(Being the Confessions of the Seven Hundredth Wife.)

TRANSLATED BY HELEN ROWLAND.

know a man and just where he standeth; even whether thou hast him hitched to the post or whether he remaineth still among the unbroken bronchos in the field. For upon 364 days of the year a man may act upon caution, but on Christmas he acteth upon instinct

I charge thee, waste no time upon him that sendeth thee cheap gloves or a foolish book from a bargain counter; for when he weddeth he shall expect his wife to do her own cooking and to make over her own frockseven to the third and fourth season; yea, he shall call upon her to save the bread crusts and the cinders and to buy the furniture with trading stamps. For a cheap man is an abomination

Yet the fool who sendeth thee American Beauties at two dallars aplece shall keep his wife guessing when the rent is to be paid and shall bring her opera tickets or a fancy brooch when she needeth a new petticoat or

But the man who sendeth thee a fancy calendar or a vase for the parhe is discreet and not even a lasso shall drag him into matrimony.

And he that forgetteth to send thee anything shall forget thee completely and altogether in a few weeks. Yea, violets may mean only "friendship," but orchids from any man

Verily, verily, Christmas is a day of sad surprises and strange shocks. For she that awaketh expecting a diamond ring shall find a cuckoo clock or a Gibson calendar awaiting her; and she shall feel as a small child that hath received a bundle of switches. Yet let not thy heart be troubled if there is a falling of among thy male acquaintances at this hour, for upon New Year's Day when the punch bowl floweth they will return again unto the fold. Selah!

Mark the Laundry.

Mark une Launary.

Mark une Laun Evening at 7:30:

Quartet from Marine Band. Walter F. Smith and Hans Wunderlich, cornets; Adolph Seidler, horn, Edward McLauftine, hartone.

"Priests' March"

"Shepherds' Sunday Song. Kreuter where it will not show, yet is sure proof to take particular palns in the care of her clothing! The name need not be put in a conspicuous place; in fact, it might in many things, in regard to the training of women doctors it is by far ahead of sheepherds' Sunday Song. Kreuter where it will not show, yet is sure proof to women doctors it is by far ahead of several other powers. For allow, were several other powers. For allow, who has no time to take particular palns in the care of her clothing! The name need not be put in a conspicuous place; in fact, it might in many things, in regard to the training of women doctors it is by far ahead of several other powers. For allow, were several other powers. For allow, who has no time to take particular palns in the care of her clothing! The name need not be put in a conspicuous place; in fact, it might in many things, in regard to the training of women doctors it is by far ahead of several other powers. For allow, we were such as the care of her clothing! The name need not be put in a conspicuous place; in fact, it might in many things, in regard to the training of women doctors it is by far ahead of several other powers. For allow, we have the care of her clothing! The name need not be put in a conspicuous place; in fact, it might in many things, in regard to the training of women doctors. Worth Carolina, Will Visit Hends in the care of her clothing! The name need not be put in a conspicuous place; in fact, it might in many things, in regard to the training of women doctors. Worth Carolina, Will Visit Hends in the care of her clothing! The name need not be put in a conspicuous place; in fact, it might in many things, in regard to the training of women doctors. Worth Carolina, Will Visit Hends in the care of the carolina, will Visit Hends in the care of the carolina, will visit Hend ually. Pour into a slightly buttered pud-

Mendelssohn of ownership. The stamp is inexpensive several other powers. For eleven years St. Eliza Douglas. Among the dancers were turned to his home in Q street. Mendelssohn of ownership. The stamp is inexpensive and one may buy a pad and indelible ink at small cost. It is a very economical of women doctors, the creation of which has cost hundreds of thousands of pounds buy outlast the girl who owns it.

Mendelssohn of ownership. The stamp is inexpensive several other powers. For eleven years St. Eliza Douglas. Among the dancers were with Mr. Jack Ashliv Riss Georgia French with Mr. Jack Ashliv Riss Elizabeth Herbert with Mr. Miss Georgia French with Mr. Jack Ashliv Riss Margaret Rorher, Miss Anna Elliott Pennebaker, University outlast the girl who owns it.

What a Woman Can 190.

Mrs. Charles Darwin Pennebaker will with Mr. Jack Ashliv Riss Margaret Rorher, Miss Anna Elliott Pennebaker, University of the sterday, Miss Ida Higgins, Miss May, her vanily in being photographed for Tuesday evening at her home in Cooke Riss.

What a Woman Can 190.

Mrs. Charles Darwin Pennebaker will daughter. Miss Angelica Howden, Mi professors, and the names of nearly 2(00) with Mr. Richard Chichester, Miss Rose Row.

RE-ENTERS SOCIETY AFTER ILLNESS.

MRS. CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS.

Wife of the Vice President, who will entertain the Senate at reception.

Auction Sale Extraordinary

For a limited time the JAPAN ART CO... 931 F Street, will offer to the highest bidder, without reserve, a magnificent collection of useful and ornamental Japanese art objects, comprising several of the prize-winning pieces shown at our bazaar at the JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

We will offer at AUCTION SALE a beautiful assortment of Fine China, Carved Furniture, Ivories, rare old pieces of Satsuma, Cloisonne, and hundreds of artistic Vases and useful household articles. We especially desire the attendance of ladies at our sales. This is the ONE CHANCE for the people of Washington to secure some of the Choicest Pieces Ever Exported from Japan.

Come To-morrow and Every Day this Week Sales, 10:30 A. M., 3 to 6 and 8 P. M.

JAPAN ART CO. 931 F St.

SOCIETY

ALEXANDRIA.

Continued from Page Two.

igh, Mary Leadbeater, Mary Phillips Mary Dent, Irine Lambert, Mary Glenn

Thler, and Mary Thomson. Edward Nicol entertain this city; Misses Kenney Bell, of Staunton; Julia Williamson, Mary Robertson, and Nellie Robertson, of Washington.

Mr. Sommers, Miss Frances Danenhower with Mr. Page Waller, Mrs. William Bryant with Mr. Stuart Hanckel, Miss Mary Snowden with Mr. Magruder Dent, Miss Clarence Snowden with Mr. Garrett Pitts, Miss Mary Donohoe, of Fairfax, with Mr. Bobley Broomback, Miss Alice Chinn with Mr. Madison Brown, Miss Phillys Snyder, of Washington, with Mr. Harris Franklin; Miss Willis Williams, of Staunton, with Mr. Griffith Uhler; Miss Robant with Mr. Stuart Hanckel, Miss Mary ton, with Mr. Griffith Uhler; Miss Rob- Mr. James Twonsley Worthington, who inson, of Louisiana, with Mr. Daingerfield Addison; Miss Anita Abbott, of Washington, with Mr. Lenox Uhler; Twonsley Worthington, of Cooke row, Washington, with Mr. Lenox Uhler; Twonsley Worthington, of Cooke row, Washington, with Mr. Lenox Uhler; Twonsley Worthington, of Cooke row, Washington Read over the dainty tea table, which was artistically decorated with masses of white pareissis smilax ferms and shaded. Washington, with Mr. Harry Brown, returned recently to his home in Philalights in silver sconces. The guests in-Miss Marjory Carter, of Markham, with delphia. Miss Marjory Carter, of Markham, with Dr. Rozier Bailey; Miss K. Du Bose, of Col. Edwin B. Babbitt. U. S. A., and Washington, with Mr. Brandric Howell: Mrs. Babbitt are the guests of Col. Bab-friends of her little daughter. Miss Virginia and Mrs. S. Percy Thompson entertained the friends of her little daughter. Miss Virginia and Mrs. S. Percy Thompson entertained the friends of her little daughter. Miss Virginia and Mrs. S. Percy Thompson entertained the friends of her little daughter. Miss Virginia and Mrs. S. Percy Thompson entertained the friends of her little daughter. Mashington, with Mr. Brandric Howeit, Mrs. Babout are the guests of Col. Babbits. C. Du Bose, of Washington, with Mr. Blake Gordon; Miss Mary Glenn Uhler with Mr. Dennis Ramsay, Miss Ada Wilkinson, of Phoenixville, Pa., with Court.

Mrs. Babout are the guests of Col. Babbit friends of her little daughter. Miss Virginia Thompson, last Tuesday afternoon at her home, in P street. Dancing and games were enjoyed and a number of prizes were given. Late in the afternoon Mr. Jack Stephenson; Miss Anna Hubard with Mr. James Drysdale. The stags were Messrs. Stuart Hunter, Conrad her home in P street complimentary holly and Christmas greens. Among those invited were Miss Elizabeth Greenlees. mers, Julian Burke, Bathurst Dainger-

Johnson, James Douglas, David Chal- to Miss Lucy Mackall, of Lyonhurst, Va., invited were Miss Elizabeth Gre field, Gwyn Dent, of this city: Messrs. past week, Bedford Brown, Robert Davis, Gustav Thompson, McWinitree, B. F. Iden, S. McCandish, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Thomas Lee and Joseph Holland, of Washington; W. H. Gaines, of Charlottesville, Va.; Richard Farr, of Fairfax; John Winn, of Berryville, Va.; August Crawford and Charles Crawford, of the Seminary, and Dr. L. Johnston, of the

GEORGETOWN.

Miss Frances De Lashmutt had as her guest during the past week Miss Lucy Mackail, of Lyonhurst, Va. A card party was given by Miss Hannah Matthewes Thursday evening at her home in Thirtieth street. There were about twenty-five guests, and "five hundred" was the game enjoyed. Miss Ellen King, who has been visiting relatives in New York, has returned January 6.

Well, Emina Carter, Frances Shoot, Body Uhler, Julia Nicol, Roie Doniphan, of this city; Misses Kenney Bell, of Staunthis city; Misses Kenney Bell, of Staunfor the holiday season Miss Frances Ranfor the holiday season Miss Frances Ranson, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Nourse, Miss Emma J. Nourse, George Howard.

Miss Lucinda Carpenter Pennebaker Dick Hume, Master Charles Mackall, and will be the hostess at a luncheon of Master Edward Bradley.

TO-DAY

Is when you should buy a bot-tle of Gowan's Preparation. To-morrow the baby may develop Croup. Gowan's prevents all ailments where inflammation is the seat. External. 25c, 50c, $1.

eighteen covers at the home of her par- and Mrs. Benjamin McBurney, ents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darwin Pen-nebaker, in Cooke row, on Wednesday, January 6.

Graves, Miss Helen Hurd, Miss Elazabeth Darby, Miss Borden, Miss Elizabeth Peirce, Miss Minnie Lippett, Miss Addis son, of Baltimore.

S. Mackall, was the hostess at a charming little dance Wednesday evening. DeLucy White, Miss Ruth Henderson, Miss The New Year's german given by the blexandria German Club was danced on has been spending the holidays with his family in New York, has returned to his home in Sixteenth street.

Mr. Everett Williams Boughton, who mg little dance wednesday evening, Delay white, Miss Ruth Henderson, Miss Georgia Lyons, Miss Bessie Glasscock, The drawing-room, which was cleared for the dancing, and the halls were profusely the dancing, and the halls were profusely the dancing, and the halls were profusely the dancing. The Miss Helen Dodge, Miss Muriel Karns, and the halls were profusely the dancing, and the halls were profusely the dancing. The dancing are designed by the dancing are ding dish, and bake in a moderate oven until firm. Chill and serve with custard freshments were served at the card tables. Orme. Miss Margaret Berry, Miss Katherine her. Miss Lucinda Carpenter Pennebaker white narcissi, smilax, ferns, and shaded who has been her house guest during the Miss Emily Mackall, Miss Katherin Berry, Miss Helen Hume, Miss Elizabeth Miss Elsie Bridgford, of Louisville, Kv., Thompson, Miss Leonora Greenlees, Miss who has been visiting Miss Marion Ed- Dorothy Borher, Miss Julia Hume, Mis monston King, at her home, in Twenty-eighth street, will return with her the Hume, Master Hugh Quinn, Master Fred early part of the week at Tarrytown on Bradley, Master Hume, Master Jack the Hudson.

> The Christmas dance which was given at the Dumbarton Club last Tuesday evening was one of the gayest of the season. A number of the members had out of town guests and several supper parties were given in the dining-room after the dancing. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Agnew Greenlees, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Chandlee, Mr.

Mr. Arthur Vosbury Vanneman, who Was Margaret Dale, Miss Anna Was Geline McDonald, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. Randolph C. Carrington, who has been the guest of his parents, in Richmond, Va.

Mr. Randolph C. Carrington, who has been the guest of his parents, in Richmond, Va.

Mr. Randolph C. Carrington, who has been the guest of his parents, in Richmond, Va.

Mr. Randolph C. Carrington, Who has been the guest of his parents, in Richmond, Va.

Mr. Arthur Vosbury Vanneman, who has disserted in Georgetown the early part of last week, and who has been visiting his parents in Havre de Grace, Md., has returned to Ithaca, N. Y., Where he is attending Cornell University.

The Day Port of the Was Minnie Lippett, Miss Many Harvey, Miss Anna Hubbard, Miss Mary Harvey, Miss Anna Hubbard, Miss Nannie Lippett, Miss Mary Harvey, Miss Anna Hubbard, Miss Nannie Lippett, Miss Anna Hubbard, Miss Mary Harvey, Mi been the guest of his parents, in Richmond, returned to Washington last week.

Miss Elizabeth Tabb Barksdale, of P street, left recently for Virginia, where she will spend several days visiting friends.

Mr. Lawrence Dublose son of Dr. and Mr. Lawrence Sprague Babbitt, at their

Mrs. Edward Nicol entertained on Thursday evening at a young people's party in honor of the Misses Barker, of Warrenton, guests of Miss Marie Louise and Miss Frances Nicol. Progressive euchre was played, and the prizes were won by Miss Anna Barley and Miss Delia Phillips. Others asked to meet the Misses Barker were Misses Christina Kemper. Cora Jones, Julia Boswell, Judith Boswell, Emma Carter, Frances Smoot, Lucy Uhler, Julia Nicol, Role Doniphan, of Dent place, have as their house guest.

she will spend several days visiting friends.

she will spend several days visiting friends.

Mr. Lawrence DuBose, son of Dr. and Mrs. George P. DuBose, entertained at a card party last night at his home in Q street.

Col. Thomas N. Wood, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Wood made a brief visit to George town last week, on their way to Charles town, Mass. Col. and Mrs. Wood have been spending the Christmas holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Capt. Robert H. Dunlop, U. S. M. C., and Mrs. Walter Frey and Mrs. Walter Frey and Mrs. Walter Frey and Mrs. Walter Frey Dunlop, at the Marine Barracks, Ansarch and Mrs. Holian Discolation was served in the dining-room, where the small tables were prettily arranged for Miss Lucy Mackall, daughter of Mr. D. shan tables were pretty and shaded Dumbarton avenue. The prizes were won by Miss Angelica Howden and Miss Irene

Mr. Roberts, Mr. Burton Leary, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Burton Leary, Mr. Waring. During the afternoon dainty re-Homer Dodge, Mr. Carlos Elton, and Mr.

What a Woman Can Do.

Prune Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Proph Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Prune Souffle.

Prune Souffle. Mr. Morris Parris was the host of a vere rebuke from the faculty of advo-Glover, last Monday evening. The gem of the performance was the cradle song, "Slumber Sweetly," sung by Mrs. J. A. Houghton. All the soloists were good and the choruses showed splendid training. The programme was as follows:

The programme was chapter in the tradity of the institute.

The provost's son, Mr. Claud Provost, of Deer was chapter med by Mr. Kleth Parris, and other crades was can was canned by Mr. Kleth Parris, and other crades was particular was can streets like her confreres in London. The and their niece, Miss Alice Ramsburg, were the hostesses at a charming teal New Year afternoon, from 4 to 7 o'clock, at their house in O o'clock or o'clock, at their house in O o'clock or o'clock or

Want Ad. to The Washington Herald,

WARNING TO PARENTS.

The Milk Conference appointed by the District Commissioners, in view of the MANY DANGERS OF RAW MILE, has recommended the home-pasteurizing of all raw milk by bringing it to the boiling point, then withdraw, cool, and keep cold until used. The conference has thereby indorsed the advice given by this society for a number

SCALD ALL MILK

Parents are particularly warned against the erroneous opinion held by some that pasteurizing affects either the digestibility or the nutritive value of the milk, or that, as a rule, it will produce any had effects what-

SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION O? SICKNESS.

E. Berliner, Secretary.